POLES SCOFF AT TERMS OF THE RUSSIANS

Foreign Minister Says They Are Ridiculous In Light of Defeat

INSULT IS RESENTED

Soviet Hordes Denied Refuge In Germany; 75,000 Captured

WARSAW, Aug. 24.—Via London; Aug. 25.—Russia's peace terms to Poland were characterized as ridiculous by Prince Eugene Sapieha, the Polish foreign minister today.

Prince Sapieha has suggested that the Russo Polish armistice and peace negotiations be transferred from Minsk to some other city nearer Warsaw unless the Russians make good their promise to give the Polish Plenipotentiaries free and full wireless connections with Warsaw.

"The Bolsheviks first offer of terms was an insult to Poland in her hour of travail," said the foreign minister; "now the Russian terms are ridiculous. Poland is preparing to disarm Germany and pacified Russia, disarm the world need not fear that Poland will rob Russia of territory as a result of our victory

The Soviet is likely to come down from the attitude it has taken

The commander of the fourth Russian army on the northern Poland battle line, attempted to obtain permission for the passage of his troops into Germany, to escape capture at the hands of the Poles, but it was refused according to dispatches from the front today.

Many of the Russians surrendered without fighting

General Weigand, head of the French military mission, who played a prominent part in directing the Polish counter offensive which saved Warsaw and defeated the Russians has left for Paris.

The number of Russian prisoners is now put at more than 75,000.

MRS. LEWIS STINER PLEADS GUILTY TO SHOOTING HUSBAND

Chances Favorable For Stiner's Recovery at City Hospital—His Wife Says She Shot Him Because Her Home Was Being Destroyed By His Former Wife

Sadie Stiner pleaded guilty before Justice L. G Abbott Wednesday morning to the charge of shooting her husband, Lewis Stiner, with intent to kill and was bound over to the grand jury, which meets Monday, September 13 No bond was fixed and she was taken back to the county jail by Sheriff Cullison, who filed the affidavit against her. Her husband, who has been at the City hospital since Tuesday morning, was getting along nicely Wednesday and prospects for his recovery seemed excellent, altho two pieces of the bullet are still buried in the back of his head. He talked rationally Wednesday morning with Dr E M Wright and attendants at the hospital

"I don t know whether I intended to kill him or not," sobbed Mrs Stiner, after Justice Abbott had read the affidavit to her and asked her to plead to the charge "I asked him where he had been and he told me he had been in Zanesville I asked him why he did not take me with him He seemed unconcerned and I asked him what he was going to do and he said he was going to do as he had been and I told him I could not stand it any longer. He sat down in a chair in the kitchen and I was so angry that I stepped behind the door and picked up the revolver and then I came back in and raised the gun and fired I thot of turning the gun and shooting myself but he begged me not to do it He lay on the floor and talked to me and told me that if I got into trouble over what I had done he would help me out. I asked him who was to blame for it and he said he was I blame his brother and his wife for getting him to do as he did Lew and I were getting along all right and if he had come back home Sunday I would not have thot so much about it He had gone away many times before and stayed as long as a week at a time. I just couldn't stand it to see my home broken up by that woman. I have a child that I think just as much of as he does of his When he told me he was going to keep on doing as he had been I told him I couldn't stand it any longer Yes, I shot him and I'll plead guilty"

The few spectators who heard her story felt that there was a great deal of justification for her firing the bullet into her husband's head at their home at Rock Run Tuesday morning It seemed to be the natural consequence of Stiner's continued illicit association with his former wife, Mrs. Cyrus Dickerson, of Zanesville Were it not for the fact that Mrs Stiner's past record is somewhat against her, she would probably stand a good chance of being acquitted. It is reported that while she was married to George Brown she boasted that she was going to show Lib Stiner that she (Mrs Brown) could have Lew Stiner if she wanted him. It is alleged that Mrs Brown, while her husband was away, frequently entertained Lewis Stiner at her home and this led up to the Brown divorce and her subsequent marriage to Stiner

There is much speculation as to whether Mrs Stiner will be convicted of shooting with intent to kill, in case her husband recovers, as now seems probable, and in case he stands by her, as she claims he told her he would. As no one else heard the conversation leading up to shooting, it may be difficult for the state to prove that Mrs Stiner intended to kill her husband, if he should testify in her behalf and exonerate her of all blame In that case the prosecution would have to depend to a large extent upon circumstantial evidence. The fact that she pleaded guilty in Justice Abbott's court will probably weigh heavily against her, however. Had she employed an attorney before pleading to the charge she would no doubt have been advised to plead not guilty.

It is reported that Mrs. Stiner obtained the gun, with which she shot her husband, from her step-father, Wm. Shaffer, about two years ago.

CHAS. (ED) DAVIS IS IMPLICATED IN COLUMBUS ROBBERY

Is Wanted In Coshocton For Stealing Auto From L. J. Foster Over Two Years Ago

Charles Davis (alias Ed. Davis), whose picture appeared on the front page of Wednesday's Ohio State Journal, in connection with the robbery of more than $10,000 worth of jewelry from the home of Dr Harry W. Brown at Columbus last Thursday morning, was indicted by the Coshocton-co grand jury September 13, 1918 for stealing L. J Foster's automobile. Later it was learned that Davis had been sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary from Lima, Ohio for being connected with a gang of automobile thieves operating between Muncie, Indiana and Columbus, Ohio. He had $600 at the time he was arrested and out of this Mr Foster received the amount of damages to his car. A photograph of Davis was received by Sheriff Cullison from the pententiary authorities

Foster's car was wrecked when Davis lost control of it while going over the Williams hill between Dresden and Zanesville and it ran backwards into a tree The local officers obtained a description of Davis thru the man whom Davis employed to watch the car while he went to Zanesville, purchasing a ticket at Dresden

The indictment returned against Davis was forwarded to Columbus after it was learned he had been sent to the penitentiary from Lima. It is presumed that Davis later escaped from the penitentiary for if he had been released he would probably have been re-arrested under the Coshocton indictment.

Forrest S. Rusk, Herbert L Schneider, Arthur Walcutt and John H. Smith ,all of Columbus, are held at the Franklin-co jail for the robbery at the home of Dr Brown last Thursday. Chas. Davis and Thomas Waldo, will be arrested soon, police say. Walcutt and Smith, police declare, made complete confessions, implicating the other four.

According to Rusk's confession, the sextet, in Rusk's car, had planned to hold up a truck load of whiskey which was supposed to come from Pittsburgh last Wednesday night. They expected to pose as federal dry officers, confiscate the truck and its contents and divide the booze.

Failing to find it, they returned and ate a lunch at the Liberty Restaurant, 300 N. High St. Again driving out Broad st, they passed the home of Dr. Brown and Rusk is said to have remarked: "If Harry Brown it as home, we ought to go in and have a drink; he ought to have a cellar full."

Again failing to find the truck of booze, the sextet started back. When

OFFICIALS OBTAIN INFORMATION ABOUT CIDER MANUFACTURE

Anybody Can Have It Made For Use In Own Home But Must Not Sell It—Must Have Your Own Apples

"The government has made it possible, thru a decision, to permit any person to manufacture ,or to have manufactured, for himself, cider for his own use in his home from his own apples up to a reasonable amount.

"A farmer or any other person may take his apples to a cider mill and have cider made therefrom for use in his own home, but not for sale. This cider thus made may be non-intoxicating in fact and not necessarily less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume. No permit will be necessary neither will you be required to file a bond covering the act above described."

This is the substance of an official communication received by Prosecutor Lloyd S Leech and County Auditor J. E. Lyons from J A Shearer, federal prohibition director of Ohio. Numerous requests had been made by persons in Coshocton-co for information concerning the law regulating the manufacture and sale of cider. The communication further says

"If you operate a customs mill merely performing the work of producing cider from apples which are brot to you, no permit will be necessary nor will a bond be required However, if in addition to this you also manufacture cider for sale to the general public and for making into apple butter or other table products, or for conversion into vinegar, it will be necessary for you to secure a permit and to file a bond in the sum of $2,000

"Cider made by you for commercial purposes intended to be sold as sweet cider must be preserved at the time of manufacture If not so preserved, sweet cider may be sold by you for conversion into vinegar only upon the receipt of a Permit to Purchase, Form 1410, duly approved by this office"

Article Five under Title Two of the National Prohibition Act of October 28, 1919 sets forth the regulations governing the manufacture of cider and vinegar, a copy of which has been sent to County Auditor Lyons by Prohibition Director Shearer.

Since the buying of cider is unlawful, those who have not apples of their own must buy the apples and take them to the mill if they wish to have cider made This is the interpretation of the statutes made by those who want cider but have no apples.

KRAMER ACTS TO SUPPRESS BOOZE SALES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25—Operations of bootleggers and of distillers on an enlarged scale in most of the big centers of the country has caused Prohibition Commissioner Kramer to adopt still more drastic measures against them.

Dry enforcement agents from various districts are to be continued in large numbers. A group of cities selected for massed attacks include New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburg, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago.

Because of the limited number of men it is impossible to suppress the illicit traffic of booze. The cities designated are recognized by Commissioner Kramer as the principal wet strongholds.

Mrs. Johnson Improves

Mrs. Clara Dawson Johnson, wife of Baxter Johnson, 333 south Ninth-st, who is suffering at the City hospital as the result of an operation for appendicitis which she underwent Tuesday morning, was reported Wednesday, to be slightly improved. Her condition became serious when peritonitis set in, following the operation.

AMERICAN BUSINESS OUTLOOK IS SOUND BUT PROSPERITY CANNOT STAY AT ZENITH, SAYS VANDERLIP

Unless the American People Curtail Luxurious Extravagance There Will Be Difficulties Ahead, is Forecast of Financier and Economist

Herewith appears the first installment of an important interview with Frank A. Vanderlip, eminent financier and political authority on world political economic events. Mr. Vanderlip was seen at his beautiful home, "Beechwood," Scarborough, overlooking the Hudson river, by Floyd MacGriff, representative of the International News Service.

Tomorrow Mr. Vanderlip will brilliantly discuss the world Russian problem for The Tribune and Times Age.

By FLOYD MACGRIFF
Copyright 1920, By I N S.

NEW YORK, Aug 25—Inherently the American business outlook is sound, but the next six years cannot be so bounteously prosperous as the past six which were inflated owing to unusual war conditions, and unless the American people curtail luxurious extravagance, there will be difficulties ahead.

That summarizes in a paragraph the views of Frank A Vanderlip, one of the foremost financiers in America who discussed for the International News Service the business outlook of this nation from a broad standpoint

"There is little prospect," he said, "of America retaining its present volume of foreign trade unless Americans as a class become more than amateurs and change their methods I do not see how this country can enjoy as great prosperity during the next six years as in the past six I see no evidence why there can be such a continuance.

"The sooner this nation realizes that that and gets back to the hard facts of economic life and to a sounder business morality, the better it will be.

"Artificial conditions, the outgrowth of the war which have been making our national life so extravagant, must be curtailed

"I do not mean by this that the workingman is not entitled to fair pay for an honest day's work, nor do I mean wage increases have not been essential. I think one may safely figure wages and other expenditures on a basis of two and a half times those of 1912 Where a dollar was spent then, it now is necessary, I find in my own affairs, to spend $2.50

"But the point is that we should start—not necessarily or by any means with wages—to reduce expenditures.

"Everyone seems agreed that something should be done, but is waiting for the other fellow to do it. Cutting down the high cost of living is all very well, the average person agrees, except when the cutting interferes with his own profits

"Not only in our business life, but

ALLEGED SLAYER IS TAKEN FROM SHIP IN BRAZIL

Eugene Leroy, Detroit, As Senor Fernandez Was a Member of Crew

MUST REMAIN ABOARD

Will Return to New York to Face Charges In Trunk Murder Case

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 25—Assistant chief of detectives McCarthy today asked Chief Carey of the New York homicide squad to make efforts to confirm thru the Lamport-Holt steamship line in New York, a newspaper report that Eugene Leroy, alias O J. Fernadez wanted here in connection with the trunk murder case, had been arrested aboard the steamer Dryden near Rio De Janeiro, and would be sent back to New York for delivery to the Detroit police. Leroy is charged with murdering his wife Katherine Jackson-Leroy in this city on June 10 and shipping the body to New York by express where it was discovered a month later.

Leroy was arrested on board the Dryden which arrived at Rio De Janeiro yesterday afternoon, he was working as a member of the crew of the vessel and the arrest was made at the request of the United States authorities there. The suspect will be guarded by four members of the maritime police while the vessel is at Rio and will return on the Dryden via Buenos Aires to New York and Detroit. Police here although not having received any official word of the arrest from the state department at Washington, sent cablegrams to the American consul and the local authorities today urging every precaution be taken to prevent the prisoners escape. The tip that Leroy was on the Dryden came from a former sailor on that ship who had recognized Leroy from published pictures. Detroit authorities sent circulars and finger prints to Rio De Janiero on a fast ship which arrived there before the Dryden.

The Dryden sailed from New York on Aug. 3, ten days after the discovery of the woman's body in New York.

MISS WHITE TELLS OF PART PLAYED BY INVISIBLE GOVT. IN FIGHT ON SUFFRAGE

Railways and U. S. Senate Reactionaries Turned the Vote of Tennessee Speaker and Other Members

NAMES ARE GIVEN OUT

Women Leaders Finally Reveal Hidden Foes and Force Them to Fight In the Open

NAHVILLE, TENN Aug 25—Governor Roberts announced tonight that the attorney general of Tennessee had told him that the suffrage amendment had been duly and legally ratified and made this statement

"I am advised by the attorney general that the action of the two houses of the legislature constitutes a ratification of this amendment and I will countenance no act intended to nullify this ratification and the will of the majority by the minority, either by flight abandonment of official duty upon the part of the members or otherwise

"I will exercise and bring to bear all the legal and legitimate powers of the office of governor to consummate in an orderly and legal manner the certification of the action of the legislature to the proper federal officials

'I shall very much regret if any conduct of mine shall forfeit the good will of any of my friends whose support and good wishes have merited and received my appreciation But I must first keep my own word and fulfill my conception of my official duty to merit the true friendship and respect of all men, and this I shall continue to do'

In keeping with the governor's statement when the senate meets tomorrow the suffrage resolution will be sent to the engrossing clerk Within a few hour it will go to Secretary of State Stevens

The house in thru with it If the 38 runaway members who are still camping in Alabama should return and try to undo what the house did yesterday they would find it an impossible task without the cooperation of the friends of suffrage

But the prospects are that the absentees will remain out of Tennessee for at least a week and that the legislature will expire at the end of the 20 day period a week from today

Fight the Injunction

In the meantime Governor Roberts Speaker Todd of the senate Representative P K Riddick and others will press for a dissolution of the injunction secured yesterday to stay further action Suffrage advocates will ask for the consideration of the injunction tomorrow

The suffragists are finding out just what it was that turned a majority of eight or ten in the house to a tie vote on Speaker Seth Walker's vote to table the ratification resolution

Miss Sue White who is conducting the fight for the National Woman's Party, was one of the first to see that the suffragists were about to be defeated by mysterious influences and threatened to publish the names of legislators who had pledged themselves in writing, and were then dickering with the opposition

We won the Tennessee suffrage fight by an eyelash because we dared to tear off the mask and bring our enemy into the open' said she 'The contest was bitter and desperate because we brot it to the light'

Finding the "Influence"

When the legislature met on Aug 9 there were definite pledges from more than a majority of members of both houses Among these pledges was that of Speaker Walker of the house made and reiterated on more than one occasion coupled with his promise to introduce the resolution and work for it These promises were given wide publicity and Mr Walker has never yet denied making them

He is a young lawyer and was one of the leaders of the fight for presidential suffrage in 1919 In giving his promise to vote and work for ratification he based his decision upon the fact that he had convinced himself thru a personal investigation of the legal questions involved that he could vote for ratification without violating his oath of office

'Then came a change We heard that in an interview with Gov Roberts on Sunday the day before the legislature met, Speaker Walker had told the governor that he would vote and work against ratification

''What had changed him? There were two theories advanced One was that Gov Roberts was secretly working against ratification The other was that Mr Walker felt a responsibility to certain corporate interests which for years had played an important part in Tennessee politics and with which Mr Walker had recently cast his lot

"On Monday, the day before the legislature met, the lobbies were agog with the news that the exemplary, irreproachable young speaker of the house, Seth Walker, had repudiated his pledge and would lead the fight against ratification. The panic was on Anyone could excuse himself for repudiating his pledge if Speaker Walker could be excused.

"On Tuesday morning Betty Gram of the National Woman's Party met Mr Walker in the lobby of the capitol and this is the question she put to him: 'Is the governor of the Louisville & Nashville railroad responsible for the opposition that is developing"

"His face turned scarlet he threw out his hands as tho he had received a center shot and cried 'You have no right to ask me such a question'

'We thot we had the right, as we needed the information and know now, as we believed then, that Mr Walker was in position to give us the true answer since he had been in the past one of the chief allies of Gov Roberts and is now connected with the legal department of the railroad in interests

The Fight Tightens

'The situation began to crystallize Was the governor opposing us or was it the corporate interests? The governor and his friends were put on their mettle to clear their skirts, and the real opposition was put on its mettle to defeat us, even tho its camouflage had been torn away

'Nashville was overrun with anti suffrage lobbyists from afar, many of them from Baltimore It was even suggested that Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, altho himself a Republican, had the power to defeat ratification in the Democratic legislature of Tennessee, thru a change of corporate interests that leads from Connecticut thru the United States senate into Tennessee and its house of representatives, via Baltimore Md, where lives an 'interlocking' director of the Atlantic Coast Railway Holding Company and the Louisville & Nashville railroad

'Then entered from behind the scenes into the open, Major E B Stahlman, veteran lobbyist of Tennessee whose hand has not yet lost its deftness nor its strength We knew then without a doubt, what we had to fight The invisible foes had become visible The Manufacturers' Association arose in its might, at Stahlman's call, and took from us overnight four out of five members of the Nashville delegation who were pledged to suffrage by every obligation of honor

Charged With Treachery

"Those four men were Joe S Boyd, Robert W Bratton, Thomas J Smith and Percy Sharpe, all of Nashville, who are now sojourning in Alabama Other members who broke definite pledges are A S Montgomery, C F Boyer, J T Whitfield, J E Cassady, W A Dunlap, S E Frogge, James H Galbraith, G C Harvill, J D McMurray, W J. Russell and W. C Thronesbury These men, together with Seth Walker, are the 16 who did not have it in them to keep faith with American womanhood in defiance of the invisible government that fears the woman vote"

Despite the fact that a cat rarely moves, it seldom becomes as fat as a dog would under similar circumstances This is because its immobility is not that of inaction, its nerves are working while its muscles seem at rest.

Mrs Catherine Montgomery of Bellingham is to be the Democratic candidate for superintendent of public instruction of the State of Washington.

FINDS NEW METHOD OF CARRYING ELECTRICITY

WINNIPEG, Man, Aug 25—Professor J W Dorsey, of the University of Manitoba, has announced, after an exhaustive survey of the water power resources of Winnipeg River, that he has discovered a new method of transmitting electric power which will reduce the cost one half He will go to Washington, D C, where he has been called to lay his discovery before the United States Bureau of Standards

"Long before the coal fields of the world are exhausted electricity will have supplanted coal as the universal fuel in homes and the motive power in industry' said Professor Dorsey "By the development of water power it is possible to do away with the necessity for coal If the potential water power of Winnipeg River were developed it would be sufficient to turn every factory wheel in Canada and heat every home and office in Winnipeg even if the temperature remained at 40 degrees below zero all the year round It would be vastly cheaper for Winnipeg to obtain its electric heat and power from Winnipeg River eighty miles than to haul coal 1,400 miles from Pennsylvania With such an immense supply of cheap power to draw upon Winnipeg must inevitably develop into one of the great manufacturing centres of Canada"

It is from Winnipeg River that the municipally owned hydro electric system derives its power which is sold to industrial plants at a lower rate than in any other city in the world In addition to the city's power plant, another which will cost $9,000,000 is being erected on Winnipeg River at Du Bonnet Falls

BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE DAY'S NEWS

It is with considerable pride that representatives of the Columbus police department point to a recent incident which they interpret as indicating great confidence in the Buckeye capital's "finest"

Mrs George Caskey reported to the police that thieves had taken a table cloth and her pocketbook, which contained $15

On the face of the report, there was nothing which appeared unusual But police officials smilingly, pointed to a fact upon which they based their belief that great confidence in the police department had been shown

This particular fact is that the report of the theft was made to the police just five months and a half after the theft occurred

A. O. HUNTER, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who says Tanlac has certainly proven its worth in both his own and his wife's case. He wasn't able to work when he began taking it.

"Last fall I had the 'Flu' and it left me in a very weak and run down condition with no appetite at all and such a weak stomach that even the smell of cooking made me sick I was awfully nervous and night after night I couldn't sleep to do any good. I would get up in the mornings tired and worn out and was so short of breath that a half hour's job would tire me as much as a whole day's work use to. In fact I finally had to give up a good job.

When I started on Tanlac I was working for the Goodyear Rubber Co in Akron, Ohio. I decided that anything that was being talked about so much was at least worth an honest trial. It worked like a charm in my case. It helped me right from the start and by the time I had taken my third bottle all of my troubles were gone and I found myself well and strong again.

"While in Akron my wife got so she couldn't eat She lost weight and got very pale Tanlac was doing me so much good I got her to try it and after taking two bottles, she is looking fine again. Her appetite is just splendid and she looks like a different person. It certainly has proven its worth to both of us and has come up to every word I have read and heard about it"

The above statement was made by A. O. Hunter, 106 W 7th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, a well known mechanic now in the employ of the Cincinnati Abatoir Co.

Tanlac is sold in Coshocton by Siegrist & Williams and in Warsaw by J D. Lawson.

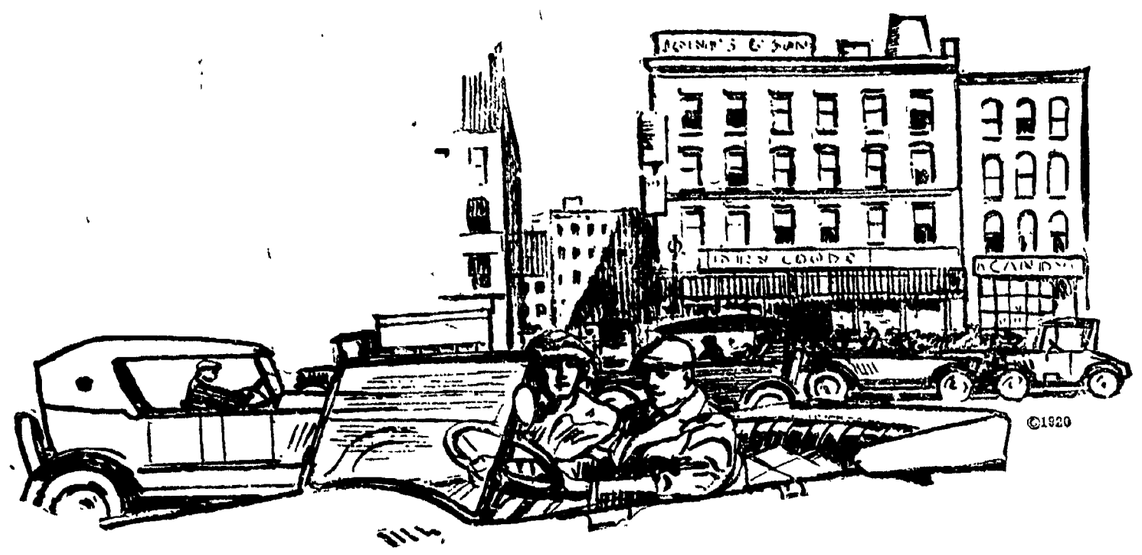
Old tires and tubes repaired, all work guaranteed. Coshocton Vulcanizing Co.



This section certainly owes a lot to the automobile

LOOK at it just from the business standpoint, compared with, say, ten years ago—or even five.

Everything speeded up—made easier. Nearly every business man depending on the automobile to transport himself and his products.

II

That is one reason, perhaps, why more attention is being paid to tires—why tire costs are being figured closer and people are beginning to look for better tires.

We believe that people are entitled to better tires—the best they can get.

Not only the man with the big car, but the man with the small car, and the medium sized car.

III

We represent U.S. Tires for that reason—because their policy is the same as ours—every tire as good as you can get it, regardless of the size of the car it is to go on.

It was that policy which led to the introduction of the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

And you can't beat it.

IV

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, with no limitation of mileage.

It will pay you to talk to us about tires, if you are looking at them from a business standpoint.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

While Costs Soar Calmly On

IN times like these it is consoling to reflect that "hope springs eternal in the human breast." The silver lining that circumscribes the clouds with which the downtrodden householder's life is enshrouded are rarely visible these days, but it is human nature to believe they are still there.

Domestic economy is a tragic fact these days. No matter what the family income, no matter what additions it may receive from time to time, the busy h c of l keeps continually to the front. We have been told much of late by the political fraternity and by the economists who don't have to figure on household expenses that prices are on the eve of tumbling.

As a result the heads of the home establishment keep their ears to the ground by day and lie awake at night listening hopefully for the crash and roar of falling prices, which they are assured, may soon be heard all the way from New York to Hell Gate, but as yet, we are loath to say, our ears are not deafened by the clatter and crash. The signs may be right, but prices stubbornly refuse to fall

And without desiring to be a killjoy or to jar the high-raised hopes of our readers, the fact remains that the indications are none too promising for an early material slump in the costs that keep the widely separated ends from meeting. To be sure those who take the opposite view and maintain that the end of high prices is in sight, can cite several articles that are cheaper now than they were a year ago. It is also true that some commodities have gone down permanently. But we would warn against too keen an expectation of a landslide.

The sober truth is that on the whole there is slight difference between the cost of necessities in August 1919 and August 1920. A year ago we were wont to reassure ourselves that "this can't last last much longer,"—but it has nevertheless lasted.

A year ago the government, as voiced by Attorney General Palmer, declared that "something had to happen" and, as that is what we were all hoping for, we all believed it. Then came Mr. Palmer's grandicose and, in the light of what happened, amusing, declaration that he would at once set about reforming retail prices in the interest of the consumer This he said, could ge done by preaching fair prices and the Golden Rule! That the government has repented at leisure we may conclude from the fact that the railroad men, who were put off last year with a promise of a lower cost of living, have been granted their increase and no word said.

As a matter of fact, the cost of living has gone up in cities ranging in size from Coshocton to New York in the last six months 15 per cent. The householder with his ear to the curb hears, not a dying fall as he had hoped, but the climbing surge of a tide that threatens to wash over his doorstep and drown his chimneys. Railway rates and wages won't go up without affecting all other products to a certain extent. Express rates and wages must likewise contribute to the size of the citizen's budget. Every man, laborer or capitalist, is out to corner as much of the national wealth as he can get, and the result, in an era of unstable values, is a general rise. It wouldn't matter if we all went up together, but in practice a few always get the lion's share and other classes are pinched.

For example, William M. Wood of the American Woolen Company declares that cloth will not come down in price—tho clothing will. In other words, he wants somebody else to absorb the decrease in profits. He won't do it. He closes down first, and holds his cloth and prices where they are. And because he can afford to wait his stratagem will probably succeed. "We are like fishermen," he says. "We have our bait, and it appears now as tho we are getting our bites." True, too true.

This high cost of living affair is apparently beyond us. We shall have to consume less and buckle our belts another hole tighter. In their own good time, after enriching a number of the less admirable members of our society, prices may come down of themselves. Nothing we can do affects them.

New York Day-By-Day

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 —
It was after midnight
And a sudden shower
Had driven me
Into the cheery doorway
Of an all night drug store.
And under the L' stairs
Was a newspaper hut
And inside was a man
Under the sickl glare
Of a flaring gas jet,
Who was looking out.
With sightless eyes
And now and then a smile
Played around his mouth

And when the rain stopped
I walked out to him
And said how cool it was
After the shower
And he said that it was
But everybody rushed home.
And he guessed he would
Close up his little shop
And I waited for him
Until he tapped his way
Out to the sidewalk
And he was going my way
And we walked together
Until we came to a park
Where he held out his hand
And said he stopped there
To sit on a bench each night
And I asked if I might
Sit beside him awhile
And he told me of his life
And how he prayed for strength
When he knew he was going
Into the Land of Darkness
And that it wasn't so bad
Then he told a funny story
And I thought of my troubles
And how small they are
And we sat silent awhile
And I drank in the beauty
Of the midnight heavens
Hung with patines of gold
And far below
The silvery Hudson
Was rippling on to the sea
And after a time
My sightless friend
As if sensing my mood
Placed his hand on my arm
And said "God is very good"
And when I left him
He was still sitting there
With a smile of content

Never Knew What a Full Night's Rest Was, Rolling and Tossing from One Side of the Bed to the Other. Now She Sleeps Sound and Awakes Feeling Refreshed, since Taking Dreco.

"I used to dread going to bed because it meant fitful sleep, bad dreams and rising next morning more tired than the night before," said Mrs. Stella Guess of 6 Brown Ave Athens, Ohio.

"My stomach gave me much distress by filling up with gas after meals and nausea. I was constipated daily; had no appetite, and had aching pains in my back right over my kidneys. Dizzy spells often attacked me; I had a bitter taste in my mouth and my tongue was coated most all the time.

"Dreco has proven to be a wonderful remedy for such troubles as I had, for I'm feeling better than in many a day. I strongly recommend Dreco as a tonic for women"

Dreco is made from the juices of twelve different herbs, roots, barks and leaves, which act directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder and the blood, and tends to relieve constipation, headaches, rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, dizzy spells, heart fluttering gas on the stomach and other troubles

WALT MASON

JOACHIM

A prince of stately pedigree whose medals were a sight to see, observed with weariness and pain how at his house the world's disdain was leveled, and he cried Shoost vait! My noble name I'll vindicate! I'll show men that the kaiser's sons are not all worthless sons of guns I've had in mind for quite a time some action splendid and sublime, our reputation to retrieve, and knocking enemies to peeve Now watch my curves! Observe my foam! Good night punk world, I'm going home!" And then he took his trusty gat and shot himself below the hat And when I heard the ghastly news I had a season of the blues For I had long regarded Jo as one too fond of empty show, who traveled with base, trifling chaps, and spent his evenings shooting craps I could not see that in him dwelt one virtue worth a tomcat's pelt I often held him up to scorn as showing that the nobs born are worse than useless if they lack a spinal column down the back But now, by one great splendid act by one sublime display of tact, this prince has shown where I was wrong, he had one virtue, true and strong Convinced he'd never make a hit he knew when it was time to quit

We offer, subject to previous sale and change in price, this an Eight per cent investment with the right to buy common stock at an attractive price.

We summarize from the letter of Mr. Chas. F. Michael, Vice President of the company, from the certified statement of Ernst & Ernst and the certified appraisal of the American Appraisal Co. as follows:

The Company The Carroll Foundry & Machine Tool Company, recently incorporated under the laws of Ohio, purchased The Carroll Foundry & Machine Company and the Lambert horizontal milling and boring machine of Cleveland, combining the manufacture of these machines with the Carroll plant in Bucyrus.

The Plant A historic one in North Central Ohio—is located at Bucyrus, on the Pennsylvania and Toledo & Ohio Central Railroads, with adequate shipping facilities, and covers about 4½ acres of land. The Carroll plant has been in operation for more than thirty years.

Assets The balance sheet of the company shows net tangible assets of about $276 per share, net quick assets of about $110 per share, for each share of preferred stock being issued. The American Appraisal Company values the land, buildings and machinery at $587,881 (sound value), and places upon it a reproduction value of $744,177. The quick assets show more than twice the total liabilities.

Earnings Gross business has ranged from $700,000 to $1,500,000 per year for several years. The Carroll Foundry & Machine Co. was successful through all kinds of business periods, and paid dividends consistently over a period of years. For the past two years and 7 months net earnings have been more than three times the dividend requirements on this issue of preferred stock, and, with the addition of the Lambert boring machine, it is conservatively estimated that net profits will be from $150,000 to $200,000 per year, or four to six times the dividend requirements on this issue.

Product The company's products consist of a stable line of manufacture in the boring mill machine, in addition to grey iron castings—heavy jobbing cranes, and castings of that character, which work the company has been producing for years and for which the company has a nation wide experience. The plant is capable of producing castings as large as 20 tons. The Lambert horizontal milling and boring machine, which will be manufactured in three sizes, will sell at from $5,000 to $14,000 per machine. Plans are being made to produce 10 machines a month, at least, and the plant will have a capacity of about 30 machines per month, an output to be realized as soon as the company gets into full production.

Management The management will be in strong and capable hands and the introduction of new equipment with more aggressive plans and policies will undoubtedly mean much to the Company and its stockholders.

The Officers and Directors are as follows: O. J. Ashman, Cleveland, Vice-President and General Manager of The Standard Equipment Co., President; C. F. Michael, Bucyrus, President Ohio Locomotive Crane Co., Vice-President; W. E. Matthew, Cleveland, Secretary; R. B. Washburn, Cleveland, Treasurer; David Lambert, Cleveland, General Manager of the machine tool division; G. W. LaVoo, Warren, formerly with the LaBelle Iron Works; Robert S. Carroll, Bucyrus, and Thomas L. Sidlo, Cleveland.

Legality Legal matters in connection with this issue were conducted for us by Messrs. Baker, Hostetler & Sidlo.

Price: 100 and accrued dividend for the preferred, with right to purchase common stock of the Company.

Mill Creek Flocks Of Chickens Culled

The demonstration held at Nathan Bechtol's was attended by 75 persons who were shown how to cull their own flocks and those persons in attendance pledged to cull 2,002 fowls.

As a matter of curiosity Mr. Bechtol kept the 31 culls taken from his flock of 74 hens For the week following the demonstration these 31 culls did not lay a single egg, while the 43 good hens laid 91 eggs. The week previous to the demonstration the entire flock had laid 54. The increased egg production is attributed to better feeding methods, and the thinning of the flock caused by the removal of the 31 culls.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many Similar Cases in Coshocton and Vicinity.

This Coshocton man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

James M. Scott, 504 N Eighth St., says: "I always worked hard on the railroad and, no doubt, the constant strain on my back is what caused kidney complaint. I had to get up three or four times during the night to pass the kidney secretions and the pain in passage was fierce. The secretions were scanty, too, and deposited sediment. When I stooped over to put on my shoes mornings, sharp pains caught me in the small of my back and it hurt me to raise up. I had dizzy spells which were so bad I could hardly see where I was going. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I bought at Siegrist & Williams' Drug Store, entirely cured me. The kidney secretions cleared up and I felt better in every way.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very small cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Ice cream was first mentioned by Marco Polo, who visited Japan in the thirteenth century and brot back tales of water and milk ices which were among the delicacies then known to the people of the East.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

To see the healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for a week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges or whose skin is sallow or pallid, that one week of inside bathing will have them looking and feeling better every way.

GOVERNOR MAY ASK PUBLIC TO CONSERVE GAS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24. — That he issue a proclamation urging the public to practice national gas conservation in Ohio is the request made of Gov. Cox.

The request comes from Ohio mayors, gas company officials and representatives of labor and woman's organizations, who at a conference in the governor's office here discussed the gas condition.

Prediction was made, that unless proper appliances are used on gas stoves, the natural gas supply will be completey exhausted in five years; if, however, the supply is properly conserved, it will last 25 years, it was claimed.

SHE LOVED HIM BUT HE WAS A GREAT WORRY

So Ghita Killed Her Lover While His Back Was Turned, Then She Surrendered

PARIS, Aug.24.—A well dressed woman appeared with a nervous air at the police station near the St. Lazare railway station and said she wished to see an inspector.

"What do you want with him?" she was asked. The woman replied: "Well, you see, I have just killed my lover and I think I ought to be arrested." The woman said her lover's body was at her flat in the Rue Constantinople.

The inspectors went there and found a luxuriously furnished dining room, where they saw the body of a man stretched across the table with his fists clenched. The woman said her name was Leonie Oliveraud, and she was aged thirty-two. She had long been known in Parisian bars as Ghita Mezuel.

Some time ago she made the acquaintance of Max Moreau, a married man and a motor car dealer. He lived in the country, but often came to Paris. Ghita Meusel had a certain amount of money of her own, and about a year ago opened an establishment called the Ritz Bar, only a stone's throw from the Cafe de Paris, well known to most British and American visitors.

The bar did well, but Ghita alleges that Moreau treated her badly. He was always asking her for money and beating her severely, whether she gave him money or not. The bar was to have closed this month. On the last night it was open Moreau appeared and created a scene. The woman was too afraid to go home and stayed with her sister. The next morning her lover appeared at the flat and said he would be good in the future, but he wanted $40,000 with which to go to Deauville.

"I saw my whole life ruined," said Ghita to the inspector. "This man would be always thrashing me, but, altho I loved him, I determined to do away with him, so I said: 'Get my writing things, dearest; I will go and get my check book.' I went into my bedroom got both my Brownings and came out with one in each hand. He was seated with his back to me and I shot him. He slipped across the table murmuring 'Ghita! Ghita!' and died. Please arrest me."

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

DIVORCE EVIL HAS BAD EFFECT ON THE FRENCH BABY CAMPAIGN

Sociologists Turn Efforts to Head Off Marital Disturbances

PARIS, Aug. 24.—A startling increase in the number of divorces since the war has practically wiped out all the benefits accruing to France from a nation-wide campaign for more and better babies.

The divorce evil has reached such alarming proportions that sociologists are turning their attention from the baby campaign in an effort to head of the crowds besieging the divorce courts. They point out that their movement for the repopulation of France will be of no avail if young married people continue to sever marital ties.

In 1913, a record divorce year, the legal separations granted in Paris totalled 5,160. In 1919 the number reached 8,097, and it is estimated that before the present year passes more than 10,000 couples will have been divorced in the capital alone.

"The divorce is almost the fashion," writes Henry Bordeaux, one of the best known of modern French writers. "There is no longer any feeling of shame attached to it.

"What are the causes of this evil—what are the causes invoked by married people who ask separations? In the greater part of the unions contracted before the war I find the same complaint, the same allusion to the past—we were happy before the war, the war came and separated us, and now that we are able to live together again, we no longer wish to.

"Among the complaints made by husbands, we must recognize that infidelity is the most frequent. The women tried to live their own lives, but only gave proof of their feebleness. Many a family that had lived in happiness before the war, was broken up when the husband went to war. One old man whom I knew was stupefied on his return to find that his fifty-year-old wife had run away with an American soldier. Another came back to resume his business only to find that his wife had given everything away to a youthful lover. The women who were too weak abandoned everything in their folly—husbands, children, situations and relatives, to try new lives.

"But these are the women a bit light-headed. There are others, simply practical and resolved to be independent. They lived independent lives, while their husbands were at the front and they can no longer support the yoke. They no longer care for the protection of men; they can look after themselves.

"And the men, by an inverse phenomenon, have never shown themselves less accommodating. They take badly this attitude on the part of their wives. Having fought the war they think everything is due them. Instead of gallant conversations with their wives they prefer to smoke their pipes and exchange reminiscences with their comrades. Between two partners so fundamentally different and so little disposed to make concessions, conflicts are inevitable.

"Then, too, the marriages contracted during the war are finding their way into the divorce courts. It seems that frequently they were solemnized without serious thot. For instance, one soldier admitted that he married only to get leave from the front. These were fragile and lamentable unions and the rupture brot only a quarrel and a court decision dividing the household furniture or the children.

"Certainly in many families the war has brot family ties closer together, has resulted in the reconciliation of many wives and husbands who had separated. But it cannot be denied that our morals have suffered heavily from the war. The progress of the divorce evil is one of our greatest social dangers because it corresponds so closely to the vital questions of our birthrate."

LEGIONERS FROM PENNSYLVANIA ARE VICTIMS OF HOAX

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 24.—Last night a few American Legioners from Pennsylvania came across to look over the big doings in the city. An innocent looking ex-yank, standing on the corner, gave one of the visitors the knowing wink and the Pennsylvanians followed in skirmish line. In a rear alley the yank brot a tall bottle to view and offered to sacrifice it at $20.00. The thirsty ones snapped the bargain. They carried the precious fluid with them to Idora park. At this point disaster takes his cue. A bluecoat thinking the party looked suspicious made a search of the auto and discovered the tall bottle. He tasted it and with a wry face said:

"Coca Cola," the visitors were saved from arrest but they went home kicking about the high cost of soft drinks in Ohio.

Yellow Fever Yields to Rockefeller Cure

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Official reports received here show that the Rockefeller Institute has at last concluded the conquest of yellow fever. It has succeeded in isolating the germ by which this dreaded disease has devastated entire cities. It devised a serum that cures and is able to make a vaccine that will prevent it. The facts are contained in a review by George E. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, who says:

"The public has proclaimed its deliverance from a menace which had never been absent since 1842. General Gorgas' ambition to write 'the last chapter of yellow fever seems no Utopian dream."

VOLUNTEER WHEAT MAKES KANSAS RICH

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 25.—Stories of sudden wealth in the Kansas wheat belt are numerous this year, due to the unusual acreage of "volunteer wheat," a crop grown from seeds which fell in the previous harvesting. Officially estimated, there were 1,500,000 acres of volunteer wheat in Kansas this year, or about a sixth of the total harvested acreage. This wheat yielded probably 40,000,000 bushels, representing a monetary value of about $100,000,000. The total Kansas crop of wheat is estimated officially at 150,000,000 bushels.

The large acreage of volunteer wheat is due to the fact that a great deal of this acreage was deserted as wheat land by the owners after last year's crop had been harvested. The 1919 acreage was in excess of 11,000,000, by far the record for any state in the union. A wet fall caused the kernels of wheat which had fallen to the ground during the harvesting to germinate.

Finding the "volunteer" crop making a stand, farmers did not disturb the growth, and, with ideal wheat-growing weather this spring, the volunteer wheat made yields fully as bountiful as the rest of the crop.

Wealth for the Taking

Innumerable stories of "deserted acreages" producing $5000 to $25,000 worth of wheat, come from western Kansas, where the bulk of the volunteer wheat was grown. Others tell of farmers who purchased farms this year and paid for them with the returns of this year's wheat harvest. A recent canvass of wheat yields in the vicinity of Oakley, a small town 60 miles east of the Colorado line, in Logan county, showed at least 50 farmers whose wheat crops this year are worth more than $50,00 0each; at least 25 have more than $75,000 of wheat each, and every farmer has a good crop. Thirteen counties most of them in northwest Kansas, this year are yielding 43,101,637 bushels of wheat, according to the latest official estimate by the state board of agriculture.

Oats and alfalfa will contribute to the farmers' prosperity and the potato crop in the Kaw valley is said to be one of the best ever.

Pottery Kicks On Proposed Addition To Glass Co. Team

The game between the Coshocton Glass company and the Pope-Gossers scheduled for Thursday evening has been called off, as the Pottery team refuses to agree to a Coshocton Regular playing the position of Samuel Payne who left to join the Boston Nationals in St Louis. The Glass Co team is minus a player.

The game may be played some time next week.

The Glass factory with Quay Norman, their new catcher, will probably be one of the strongest teams in the league.

TAGGING ALL BASES

The leaders were held to four hits by Bob Shawkey, but one of them was a triple with two Bengals on the paths and the Yanks fell 3 to 5.

Charlie Herzog smacked a ninth inning single which gave the Cubs a 3 to 2 victory over the Braves.

Red Faber took a pasting, the Senators failing him for an 8 to 5 victory over the White Sox.

By winning 7 to 2 the Red Sox took the odd game from Cleveland.

The Pirates loosened the race in the National league a bit when they walloped the Dodgers 4 to 3.

The Athletics made both close, but lost them to St. Louis, each by score of 3 to 1.

Napier, a rookie, pitched another game into the Reds won column when he stopped the Phillies and beat them, 7 to 2.

Athens Police Raid 'Hom Brew' Brewery

ATHENS, Aug. 25.—The first arrest for making "home brew" took place here today when Athens police invaded the home of Walter Finney and confiscated 50 bottles of beer. Finney confessed making the stuff, the officers say, and admitted he had been making it for several months for his own use; had given some of the 'brew' away, but had never sold any.

A federal prohibition officer came from Columbus today, took charge of the case and issued a warning that home brewing of beer must end.

Menace to Potatoes Is Cool, Wet Weather

WOOSTER, Aug. 25.—Warnings were issued at the Ohio experimental station here today that late blight of potatoes is developing rapidly in the state, due to the cool and wet weather and that heavy losses are probable unless fields are promptly sprayed with the common Bordeaux mixture.

JACKSON-TP MAN IS A CANDIDATE FOR CO. SHERIFF

N. Howard Price of Roscoe, Republican candidate for county sheriff is a life long resident of Coshocton-co having been born in Jackson-tp. For 22 years he was associated with the public schools of the county in the role of an instructor. Twelve years of this time he spent as assistant principal of the Roscoe schools. He is eminently fitted for the office to which he aspires thru the votes of his life long associates. Perhaps few other men in the county are as well known as Mr. Price.

N. HOWARD PRICE

For several years he has been active in church and Sunday school work, and he has addressed gatherings in all topics of the day, and has always been aligned on the right side of reform movements for the betterment of his fellowman.

Recently Mr. Price has become a member of the Peoples Undertaking firm, a corporation which he was in some measure instrumental in founding.

Thruout his life he has been a consistent Republican and has served the people and the party faithfully in offices requiring his time and effort without material compensation. He is asking for the first time a county office, and feels that he is in some measure entitled to the consideration of the electors of the county at the polls in November.

AMERICAN BUSINESS

in our private affairs I believe we all should strive to be more frugal.

"Is the American outlook today inherently sound?" he was asked.

"Business in this country," he said, "is largely dependent upon crops. There will be bounteous crops this year, especially of those crops harvested in the latter part of the season.

"Bumper crops tend to protect the United States from industrial depression in the home market."

"How about foreign trade?" he was asked.

"Our foreign trade gradually is declining as figures issued monthly show. With the exception of a few American industries with their own distributing organizations abroad—such as the Singer Sewing Machine Company, the Remington Typewriter Company, the Standard Oil Company and the harvester companies we are amateurs in competition with England in foreign trade.

"Too many American business men have failed in their own line. They think they can become successful exporters. With no study of the market they are trying to serve abroad, without catering to the industrial or peculiar wants of the foreign buyer and without keeping themselves adequately informed as to world trade conditions. They are interested in the first shipment—which often may prove the last under such conditions. Consequently such exporters are doing our foreign trade incalculable harm, for the buyers will not put up with such dealings longer than necessary. They will buy elsewhere.

"Another thing, we cannot continue selling abroad in the present volume unless we begin to take goods in exchange."

"Would you knock holes in our tariff wall?" Mr. Vanderlip was asked.

"That will not be necessary," he answered. "Persons interested in developing our foreign trade might do well to consider the policy of British manufacturers who take great pains in pleasing foreign purchasers in their respective wants and, in fostering pleasant business relations.

"We have excelled in those industries where mass production can be utilized, thus satisfying a large home consumption and disposing of the surplus abroad."

Discussing the presidential campaign, Mr. Vanderlip confessed he was surprised and disappointed that neither the Democratic nor Republican party had rised to the opportunity before it.

"There was a lamentable lack of outstanding statesmanship or national leadership shown at the Chicago and San Francisco conventions," said Mr. Vanderlip.

"And I say this as a Republican. As to the presidency itself, I have one thot upon that. Since Roosevelt was president, there has grown up an exaggerated idea of the power and influence our chief executive should exercise. I believe our president should not possess powers of a dictator or a monarch."

CHAS. (ED) DAVIS

opposite Brown's home, they stopped the machine and Walcutt, Schneider, Davis and Smith got out. Two jimmied a window and opening the door, admitted the other two. They entered the house and committed the burglary.

Here the confession differs from Dr. Brown's versioin of the burglary, as told to police Thursday. According to Dr. Brown, the robbers asked him for liquor, but, when he told them he had none, they left. Both the confessions of Walcutt and Smith, however, declare that Dr. Brown gave them a quart of whisky.

According to Chief French yesterday, this bottle was found in a cabin along Big Walnut, owned by Rusk, and was the first evidence found which connected the architect with the crime.

Leaving the Brown home, the confessions continue, the band drove to Rusk's cabin, and attempted to divide their spoils. Schneider, it was declared, kicked at the share allotted him, and they drove back to Columbus, giving the jewels to Rusk, and agreeing to meet in the rear of the Southern Hotel at 11 a. m. to effect the division.

At that hour they met again, entered Rusk's car and drove about the South End. During the drive, it was agreed $2000 was a fair valuation for the loot, and that at another meeting, at 5:30 that afternoon, in the Marion Cafe, W. Broad-st, the "split" would be made.

Schneider, Davis, Smith and Walcutt met, and Schneider paid each of the others $400. Rusk, it is said, did not attend this conference.

Rusk stoutly denies all of the charges, and maintains he slept in his office the entire night of the robbery.

Conviction of the men would involve life sentences in prison.

Hard Luck Pursues Campers Who Started On Friday, The 13th

Never go camping on Friday, the thirteenth. That's the slogan of four hungry citizens, who returned to Coshocton Tuesday from "Camp Needmore" near Wild Turkey Locks. Altho their friends warned them against starting on their outing on the famous jinx day, they threw caution to the winds and pitched their tents along the Tuscarawas river. The party was composed of L. J. Foster, Fred Scherrer, Sam Felver and Chas. Smith. Holly Randles went along as chef but he got sick and was forced to come home. The other campers all got poisoned from ivy vines and the damp weather did not tend to raise their depressed spirits. To make matters worse the river was swollen and muddy and fishing was extremely poor. After ten days of tough luck they broke camp. Tuesday night some one called up Auctioneer Foster and asked him if he had time to cry a sale; that he was wanted to sell some chattels up at Camp Needmore.

Buckeye Brevities Gathered By I. N. S.

St. CLAIRSVILLE, Aug., 25.—England is getting over her jealousy toward America, due to the latter's part in winning the war, according to members of a party of eight Belmont county residents who have just returned from a several months' visit in that country.

In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. William Slater and sons, Norval and William, of Blaine; Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, of Bridgeport, and William Embleton and daughter, Hanna, of Oco. They say English mines are working every day, miners there losing no time on account of lack of railroad cars as is the case, in Eastern Ohio.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Aug. 25.—There are three danger signals in modern life, according to L. J. Tabor, Barnesville, master of the Ohio State Grange, in an address on "A Rural Watchtower."

The first danger signal, said Tabor, is the drift from country to city, showing that 29 rural counties in Ohio have less population today than 10 years ago.

The second danger signal, Tabor, believes, is the supplanting of old and established English-speaking farm communities with non-English speaking emmigrants.

The third danger signal, according to Tabor, is the misunderstanding that is developing between country and town. Tabor urged closer cooperation between the farmer and the city dweller in meeting problems confronting them.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 25.—A conflict is on here between Secretary Maurice Langan, of the Ohio fair price commission, and Columbus sugar brokers and jobbers.

Brokers and jobbers have declared that the sugar market has reached bottom and that the demand for sugar for canning fruits will boost prevailing prices.

Secretary Langan, on the other hand, declared prices will continue to drop, possibly reaching 10 cents a pound by New Year's.

"Wholesalers are loaded up and want to get present holdings off their hands before the new crop is put on the market," said Secretary Langan. "Before long, sugar from beet sugar refineries in northern Ohio and other states will be put on the market."

Secretary Langan declared that the brokers' advice to housewives is "buy now" is designed to save the hides of big holders of sugar who fear financial losses as a result of the decline in prices of sugar."
